PARA 6087 (1 unit)

The Sri Yantra: Theory & Practice
with world-renowned scholar, Dr. Madhu Khanna
Saturday & Sunday, April 26-27, 2014
AUDITING OPEN TO ALL (DEADLINE: APRIL 25)

This weekend intensive course will present the theology of the Sri Yantra (the logo of the California Institute of Integral Studies) and discuss its philosophical and religious significance.

The weekend will include Sanskrit chanting of the names of Sri Lalita, of whom the Sri Yantra is the subtle form.

The meditation methods used in the worship of Sri Yantra will also be elaborated, including student participation.

Dr. Madhu Khanna holds a doctorate from Oxford University, and is currently a professor of Indic Religion at the Centre for Comparative Religion and Civilizations at Jamia Millia Islamia University, New Delhi.

She is the author of several books, including Yantra: The Tantric Symbol of Cosmic Unity (London: Thames & Hudson, 1994) and Saktapramodah of Deva Nandan Singh (Delhi: DK Printworld, 2013).

Dr. Khanna is the founder of the Tantra Foundation in Delhi, and has been initiated into the Tantric practice of Sri Vidya and Shakti sadhana by renowned gurus of this tradition.

This lecture by renowned scholar Dr. Madhu Khanna explores the inter-relationships of some of the seminal concepts that have given Shakta Tantra its distinctive signature – namely, the gyno-centric cosmology based on the principle of cosmic bi-unity, its gendered world-view, the relationship between the divine and mortal women, and the micro-macro system of correspondences. The lecture will examine the great potential that these meta ideas hold for providing a Eco-dharma today when humanity enters a new era of self-renewal and ecological sustainability.

Dr. Madhu Khanna is the 2014 Bina & Haridas Chaudhuri Visiting Fellow. The author of several notable books and articles on Tantra, gender, and ecology, she holds a PhD from Oxford University and is currently faculty at Jamia Milia Islamia University in Delhi.

Special Student Policies:

Check each box below to indicate that you have read the following policies:

- Special Student registration does not constitute admission to CIIS. Students registered in Special Student status are not eligible to earn a degree or a certificate. Those seeking a degree or certificate must submit an Application for Admission.

- Should a Special Student later apply for and be admitted to a CIIS degree program, the maximum number of credit hours taken as a Special Student that may apply toward the degree’s progression is limited to one-sixth of the credits required for the program.

- Credit hours taken as a Special Student may not apply toward a certificate program.

- Students registered in Special Student status are not eligible for financial aid.

- Special Student status remains active for one semester. Special Students must re-submit the Special Student Application every semester that they intend to register.

- Special Students must have their registration approved by the chair of the department or program in which the course(s) are housed, and are encouraged to bring copies of transcripts to help establish eligibility for enrollment when meeting with the chair(s).

- Special Students must have earned a high school diploma or GED to eligible to take undergraduate courses, and this diploma/GED must be declared on the Special Student Application. Special Students may take elective undergraduate courses only, not courses required for undergraduate cohorts.

- Special Students must have earned a bachelor’s degree to be eligible to take graduate courses, and this degree must be declared on the Special Student Application. Special Students may take graduate course in audit status without having earned a bachelor’s degree if permission is given by the program director in which the course is housed.

- Special Students are required to be in satisfactory academic standing to enroll and to remain enrolled. Evidence of satisfactory academic standing is determined in the following manner, and students who fail to meet them are not permitted to register:
  - Undergraduate students: No more than two of any of the following combination of grades: C-, D+, D-, F, NP, NS, I, IN, or AW.
  - Graduate students: No more than two of any of the following combination of grades: B-, C+, C, C-, D, F, NP, NS, I, IN, or AW.
