Master of Arts (MA) in Anthropology and Social Change

Student Learning Outcomes – ANTH MA

1.0 Make a contribution to social science scholarship, linking academic and grassroots knowledge

2.0 Learn advanced research skills

2.1 Synthesize existing knowledge, identifying and accessing appropriate resources and other sources of relevant information and critically analyzing and evaluating one’s own findings and those of others

2.2 Apply existing research methodologies, techniques, and technical skills with a special emphasis on ethnography

2.3 Communicate in a style appropriate to the social science

3.0 Demonstrate commitment to advancing the values of activist scholarship

3.1 Keep abreast of current advances within one’s field and related areas

3.2 Show commitment to personal professional development through engagement in professional societies, community dialogue, and other knowledge transfer modes

3.3 Show commitment to creating an environment that supports learning through teaching, collaborative inquiry, or professional practice

4.0 Demonstrate ability to connect scholarship to social and personal transformation

5.0 Demonstrate professional skills

5.1 Adhere to ethical standards in the discipline

5.2 Listen, give, and receive feedback effectively

5.3 Demonstrate ability to utilize selected activist skills (e.g., media, policy analysis, environmental, campaigning and organizing