

California Institute of Integral Studies

CIIS Email Account for Former Employees

Policy approved Jan 2019

Former faculty and staff may keep their CIIS email addresses unless some specific circumstance requires a different course of action, however they will be removed from all CIIS-related email distribution lists and all CIIS-related security groups such that they can only use email, and cannot remote access any files/folders on the CIIS network.