

SAMPLE BANK LETTER

(Letter should be printed on bank letterhead)

These sample letters represent the minimum amount of information that is required for the issuance of the I-20. Bank letters should be on bank letterhead and issued no earlier than four months before program start date.

Date:

To Whom It May Concern:

Sample One:

Please be advised that as of today, the account of _____ (student name or student sponsor's name)

has significantly greater assets than the $00,000 needed to support the educational (total amount of living and educational expenses for one year) and living expenses of _____, while attending the (student name)

California Institute of Integral Studies.

Sincerely,

Bank Representative Signature (and stamp)

Sample Two:

This letter is being written to confirm that the account of _____ (student name or student sponsor's name)

currently holds a total of $00,000. These funds would be available to cover the educational and living expenses of _____, while attending the (student name)

California Institute of Integral Studies.

Sincerely,

Bank Representative Signature (and stamp)