

Errata to AY 22-23 CIIS Catalog

Corrected Language

Coursework marked by a grade of D- or F is not transferable. Coursework marked by a grade of D is transferrable, so long as the overall incoming transfer GPA remains 2.0 or higher. Coursework marked by a grade of D may be accepted for transfer credit, but may not be applied to satisfy general education requirements.

Undergraduate Program

1. Applicants to the School of Undergraduate Studies' B.A. in Interdisciplinary Studies and B.S. in Psychology must have earned a minimum of 54 semester units of transferable credit (see below for definition of transferable undergraduate credit). Up to 30 of these units may have been earned through satisfactory test results from the College-Level Examination Program (CLEP), Advanced Placement (AP) exams, or the Excelsior College Examinations (ECE). The maximum number of semester units a student can transfer into either the B.A. in Interdisciplinary Studies or the B.S. in Psychology is 84, with 75 being the maximum number of lower-division units. Applicants who have attended a four-year institution may have a mix of upper- and lower-division units not to exceed a total of 84 transfer units. Coursework marked by a grade of D, D-, or F, is not transferable. We will accept a maximum of 3 units of coursework in Physical Education. Coursework taken twice for credit will be counted only once. Developmental or remedial coursework that cannot be applied toward a bachelor's degree also will not be accepted.
2. Applicants must demonstrate a readiness to explore and develop their life direction or vocation, a commitment to learning that incorporates significant personal growth, a willingness to work within a group setting, and college-level communication skills.

Undergraduate Transfer Credit

The School of Undergraduate Studies (SUS) accepts up to 84 units of transfer credit for both the Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies and the Bachelor of Science in Psychology, and must accept up to 54 for an applicant to be fully admitted. These units may be earned through any combination of the following:

Source	Restrictions
Accredited community or junior colleges*	75-unit limit
Accredited four-year institutions	84-unit limit, with up to 75 in the lower division and up to 40 in one subject area (potentially more than 40 for interdisciplinary studies)
Accredited university extension programs for professional development	12-unit limit, evaluated on a case-by-case basis
Advanced Placement (AP) examinations; College Level Examination Program (CLEP); Excelsior College Examination (ECE)	30-unit combined total limit
Professional Military Education (PME)	Evaluated on a case-by-case basis according to American Council on Education (ACE) guidelines

* Community or junior college credit is accepted for transfer in accordance with the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC). All California community and junior colleges participate in IGETC, and most indicate IGETC-approved courses in their course catalogs. The responsibility for the selection of the proper courses for transfer credit, however, rests with the student.
